Class Song.

Words by ALICE E. SERGEANT.

Triumphant songs around us peal,
A chorus loud is swelling ;
O'er all the earth Creation speaks,
A joy through nature telling.
Amidst this symphony of praise
Our anthem let us render,
Our love for Alma Mater sing
In accents sweet and tender.

Before us stands the open door
Out to the future leading,
And as we pass its portals wide,
Our thoughts go backward speeding
To days, with friends and classmates dear,
We spent in toil and pleasure,
Preparing for the work of life,
Which only time can measure.

Through all the years may we with pride,
Our colors be found wearing,
Violet and white our emblems be
For loyal, noble daring.
Each deed of worth be guided by
These words inspired by Heaven
“ Work, Hope, Conquer,” only thus
True service will be given.
